

KEY MINERS
STAGE JUBILEE

Local Men Speak at Thirtieth Anniversary Celebration of Coal Valley Union.

Coal Valley Miners' union celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of its formation at the union's home in Valley last night.

Reagan, editor of the City Labor Review, and M. L. L. Federation of Labor, were present by the union to make the address.

Speakers confined themselves to statements on the organization situation in general, and the growth of miners' union.

However, none of the speakers of the evening commented on the recent strike of the miners or conditions before or after the strike.

The celebration was carried out in the lines of a social good banquet was served and dancing was done and other amusements.

Pay Off Debt.

The occasion was also made one of paying off the debt of the last indebtedness on its part.

HARDING MANAGER
SAYS OLD METHODS
WILL WIN IN 1920

Harry M. Daugherty.

Harry M. Daugherty of Ohio, who is managing the presidential campaign of Senator Warren G. Harding, says that the Republican presidential candidate this year will be selected in the old way—not according to the wishes of the people as expressed in the primaries, but by a small group of men seated around a table on the fourth day of the convention at 11 minutes after two in the morning. "At that meeting Senator Harding will be ready to take his chances," says Mr. Daugherty.

'DAD' ALLISON
PASSES AWAY

Moline's Greatest Baseball Fan Died This Morning at the Age of 92.

Isaac W. "Dad" Allison, Moline's greatest baseball fan and only Mexican war veteran, died this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Minnie Bennett, 2617 Thirteenth avenue. "Dad" Allison was 92 years old. He was a baseball institution in Moline. According to enthusiastic fans, "Dad" never missed a game since Moline first became a member of the Three-Eyes association of baseball clubs.

Mr. Allison was the only man not officially connected with baseball who held an annual pass to the Moline park. He had held the pass from the first day Moline entered the professional baseball world.

"Dad" had his own score book and he kept a record of every play and every game. In the early years, he kept the book without assistance, but in the last few seasons, newspaper men with whom he shared the press box at the games, kept the veteran record.

News of Allison's death came as a distinct shock to many baseball enthusiasts. His age also was a surprise to many. Everybody who ever attended a game knew Allison, but few suspected the veteran was near the century mark.

W. Allison had lived in Moline for 20 years. He was a retired carpenter. Death was due to old age. He was an honorary member of the Graham post, G. A. R. He was a member of the Methodist church.

In 1861 he was married to Sara Anderson. Mrs. Allison died 25 years ago.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Bennett of Moline, two sons, George, of Downer's Grove, and Frank of Chicago, and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Lewis of Chicago.

TENANTS LOOK FOR NEW HOME

Tenants in the Chase block, recently leased by Fisk & Loosley to provide extension of their store, are on hunt for new office locations, although those occupying offices over the Moline Trust & Savings bank and the Square Deal shoe store are guaranteed a longer tenancy. Offices in the east half of the block, however, have been removed within the last week.

M. J. Horstkamp, veteran real estate and insurance man, who is now in offices in the Berglund building, has been a tenant of the Chase block for 20 years, probably a record for business office location in the downtown section of the city. Temporary offices of the Fifth avenue bank were closed by the order to vacate, but the new bank will be open within a few weeks. All other tenants of that section have relocated. Offices in the other section of the block may remain until the new Moline Trust bank building is opened. That at least some tenants are leased by some of the tenants this morning.

Remodeling of the block for occupancy by the mercantile firm is already under way and the Shalene Bros. building will soon be a part of the store. Shalene Bros. are now located in the Deere block, adjoining the Palace theatre, Fourteenth street and Fifth avenue.
